

4 Spiritual Positions

Non-Religious Pre-Christian

Doesn't attend church & doesn't know Jesus

Religious Pre-Christian

Attends church, checks off the "I went to church box", lives unchanged by God, and likely thinks they are Christian

Religious Christian

Attends church, involved in living Jesus' mission at Church and maybe beyond the walls of the church

Non-Religious Christian

Passionate follower of Jesus; possibly attends church but knows there is more to church than what they have experienced; are likely fed up with the institution of church and have possibly been marginalized by local church leadership because they think and lead outside the conventional box; they live Jesus' mission outside the walls of the church